JACK JOHNSON MAY LIVE AMONG THE MILLIONAIRES OF BROOKLYN

New York, N. Y., Aug. 4.—Residents of Brooklyn Heights, an exclusive section where many wealthy New Yorkers have homes, are in a turmoil over the announcement that Jack Johnson, the negro heavyweight champion, is negotiating for the purchase of a home in their midst. The price is said to be $62,500.

Johnson announces that he intends to maintain the house "in style corresponding to the prevailing fashion of Brooklyn's exclusive social community. One of his nearest neighbors would be Rev. Nevell Dwight Hillis. Two justices of the state supreme court and a score of millionaire bankers, lawyers and business men live near.

Fort Worth team it is rumored that Dearthoff, the fast little pitcher, will jump the aggregation. His friends are trying to show him how foolish this would be. Realizing that observation of training rules is absolutely necessary to win the pennant, manager Morris is pretty strict with his players now and some of them don't like it a little bit.

Stovall, of the Fort Worth Panthers, is leading the league in hitting. His average is .340. Northern of Houston is batting .315. He is the next man.

Dallas has given Hargis, the new Cripple Creek outfielder, a trial. His work has been of a high grade and he looks like a comer.

I. O. Loveland, an outfielder, has joined the Shreveport team. He will

JENNINGS HOPES TO WIN PENNANT

Hugh Jennings, manager of the Detroit Tigers, is over 100 points behind the Athletics, who are leading the American league. Jennings still has every confidence that his team will capture the pennant. He said that his men are now playing great ball and that the team is in better shape now than it has been at any time this season.

CACTUS LEAGUE DOPE

By N. M. Walker

Cactus crowds are to see a real and not any more "ham egg" umpire, "Scotty" Allen of Los Angeles has been signed to umpire in the Cactus league and will make his first appearance this week at Clifton in the Clifton-El Paso game, according to the Los Angeles Times. "Scotty" is the owner of the big Mace ball park in Los Angeles and is also substitute umpire in the Coast league. He has been hoping to get on regular, but the league is cutting down expenses and will not strengthen its umpire force this season. Allen is well known on the coast and his decisions in the games where he has worked have given satisfaction. He will finish the season in this little league.

The long horns romped all over the Red Sox in the practice game at the park Thursday afternoon. The final score was 7 to 2, although the score was the least of the local club's troubles. What was more to the point was the work of the club behind Wolfe as captain. The boys are getting down to brass tacks under the curly-haired chap and he is working out a complete new set of signals. Stanley Gray was tried out on first, and as is his habit, he made good in that position. Gray is the most remarkable player on the club, for he can cover any position in the field, can catch a good game and can pitch right up to the handle. He scooped up the low ones, went into the air after the high ones and showed Frank Chance form on first that promises to make him a reputation for that position equal to that of old Jack, who went up higher on his ability to deliver the goods. The game was not much of a game as games go. Gutierrez, the former Cananea pitcher, worked for the Red Sox, but failed to show the same change of pace and native cleverness that he had when he was wearing the yellow trimmed uniform. Anderson allowed the amateurs two hits, all they got in the game. Wolfe caught Andy and then retired to watch the work of the team. Merritt relieved him and handled the other pitchers in the mid-week workout.

Large Ed Walsh and Jack Coombs fought a draw at Chicago Thursday in the game between Chicago and Philadelphia in the American league. Going 16 innings without a run, the two clubs went into the darkness with the supremacy still unsettled, and no runs across the rubber at South Side park. It was one of the greatest pitchers' battles ever seen in Chicago. Walsh, the king of the spit ballers, was working like a piece of well-oiled machinery, and Coombs was in equally fine trim. Coombs held Chicago down for nine innings without a hit and issued but three during the sixteen innings. Walsh allowed but six hits in the game and had 10 strikeouts to Coombs' 13 men. Sullivan handled Walsh behind the bat like old times and the contest was one of the most spectacular ever seen in baseball.

The "nothing doing" sign will be hung out at the park this week. The Mavericks have gone to Clifton for two games with the copper camp nine and will return in time to play a return engagement with that same club next week. The team will remain as it is at present. The contemplated shifts will not be made at present, if at all. Gray will be played at first in one of the games and Merritt used as utility fielder. Aside from this, the club will appear for the first time at Clifton as it lined up against Morenci Saturday and Sunday.

Roy Corhan, who has played around the cactus belt with Douglas, Bisbee, Phoenix and Tucson, has been sold to the Chicago White Sox by St. Joe. The sale price is reported to be $800 and Corhan will be given a chance to appear in the lineup of the Sox club at once. He made his first appearance in Tucson with the Old Pueblo team. Later he drifted around the league and played last season with the Pueblo, Colo., of the Western Association.

A letter from Clifton says: "In your standings Monday Cananea was given credit for the Sunday game and the Saturday contest not included. Including both games, we figure the standings here Cananea, W. 15, L. 15, .500; Clifton, W. 10, L. 15, .400.
